Mayor of West Yorkshire
Tracy Brabin

"Sangam Festival is such a great celebration of South Asian heritage, arts and culture. I am so proud to represent a diverse region, and from attending the festival in the past I know just how important it is for our area, bringing people together and showcasing the very best we have to offer."

Sangam Festival Director
Qaisar Mahmood

We're proud to be Yorkshire's leading South Asian Heritage Month (SAHM) festival, with indoor, outdoor and online events running from 18 July - 17 August. Launching with the Sangam Mela on 9 July at Greenhead Park, the Festival showcases our rich diversity, from music and art to free family entertainment. Come and join in the celebration!
